METROPOLITAN AREA PLANNING FORUM HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING IN NEW YORK CITY

NEW YORK - The Metropolitan Area Planning (MAP) Forum, a consortium of metropolitan planning organizations (MPOs) in the New York-New Jersey-Connecticut-Pennsylvania region, held its 2017 Annual Meeting on December 7 at the New York Metropolitan Transportation Council (NYMTC).

Members of the MAP Forum discussed recent regional transportation and planning developments, including transportation performance management, the Post-Hurricane Sandy Transportation Resiliency Study, Cross-Harbor goods movement, the Hudson Tunnel project, the Lincoln Tunnel Helix and Express Bus Lane and the Port Authority Bus Terminal. Also, details were provided on new Regional Transportation Plans for both New York and northern New Jersey.

"NYMTC is pleased to host this year's Annual Meeting of the MAP Forum. It's truly an honor to discuss, collaborate and share information," said NYMTC Executive Director José M. Rivera. "As MPOs and regional councils of government, we plan and invest today to make sure our regional transportation system is better equipped for tomorrow."

The widely-attended meeting featured presentations by NYMTC, the New Jersey Transportation Planning Authority (NJTPA) and Cambridge Systematics. Also, there was a roundtable discussion on Trans-Hudson Studies/Projects that featured New Jersey Transit, the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey and the Federal Railroad Administration (FRA).

LANGUAGE ACCESS NOW AVAILABLE AT NYMTC

NYMTC's Language Access Program is now available to provide a more inclusive planning process and further enhance NYMTC's public involvement efforts to increase access to information. The 2010 Census identifies a Limited English Proficiency (LEP) population of roughly 2.2 million people in the NYMTC planning area, with just over 70% of the total LEP population speaks one of three languages – Spanish, Chinese and Russian. These three languages are considered as primary LEP languages in NYMTC's planning area. For more information on the program and how to access services, go to <https://www.nymtc.org/Get-Involved/Language-Access-Program>.
